COME TO LIFE – MAKERS

Jessica Thompson, Model (About)

Queen's Staircase model

Jessica Frances Thompson is a model who began her career at the age of fourteen. Though, her first professional photo was taken in 2009 by Bruce Weber, which ended up in Paris Vogue that year. In 2011 she entered the International Talent Showcase (ITS), and got the chance to meet with agents from Next, Elite, amongst others, and from there she signed with Major Model Management for three years. With Major Models she was able to travel to New York, shooting with Strawberry and Dreamdate NYC. When she went back home, she walked the runway twice in Islands of the World Fashion Week in 2012 and 2014, and also travelled to Jamaica as a featured model in Mission Catwalk for House of Raphaelita's David Rolle. In 2015 she entered Island MMTS, becoming the first runner up in the runway competition, winning Fashion and Commercial Photography, and becoming one of the faces of their 2016 competition. She signed with the Above and Beyond Group, and travelled to London where she had appearances for Hunger Magazine, DKNY, Topshop, amongst others. When she returned home again, she got the chance to visit some of the islands she never had the chance to, with a Japanese travel company, to host an episode of their show. She also shot for swimsuit companies like Swimmy Systems, Nic del Mar, Bang! Swimwear, and Cali Trend.
